Open Door Escape Games – The Trials Supplemental Waiver

This waiver supplements the standard Open Door Escape Games Release of Liability. Because The Trials involves heightened intensity and unique elements, all participants must review and sign this waiver in addition to the general release.

Acknowledgement of Activities

I understand that participation in The Trials may include:

1. Movement in unusual spaces – which may involve changes in balance, orientation, or motion.
2. Periods of darkness and sensory effects – including sound, light, or environmental changes designed to unsettle.
3. Interactive scares – in which actors, staff, or effects may create startling or frightening encounters.
4. Incidental physical contact – light, brief touch may occur as part of the immersive experience.
5. Themed participation – which could include voluntary tasting or handling of harmless items provided by staff.

Risks

I acknowledge that these activities carry potential risks including (but not limited to): dizziness, nausea, claustrophobia, motion sickness, anxiety, minor bumps or bruises, and psychological stress.

Consent

- I willingly assume all risks associated with participation.
- I confirm that I am physically and mentally fit for this experience.
- I understand this experience is not recommended for individuals with conditions such as motion sickness, heart concerns, epilepsy, severe anxiety, pregnancy, or similar health issues.
- I agree to follow all staff instructions to ensure the safety of myself and others.

Release

By signing below, I release and discharge Open Door Escape Games, its owners, staff, and affiliates from any and all liability for injury, illness, or damages arising from participation in The Trials.
